Petition to save children's groups

by Lottie Welch
lottie@viewnews.co.uk

PARENTS in and around Bridport are campaigning and have launched a petition to save two children's groups at risk of closure.

'Stay and Play' and 'Saturdads', both at Bridport Children's Centre, are being hit by cuts to children's services from Dorset County Council and are to be closed.

Ros Kayes, county councillor for Bridport, said: "This is all part of the cuts to children's services.

"However, councillors were told that the children's centres' budgets were to be protected because most of what they are doing is intervention work for families at risk or in need. So I don't understand why these groups are under threat, that is why I am supporting the petition to retain them."

The petition, which can be found at http://chn.ge/29t4uxw, has been set up by parent George Gotts who said it was really important to have this service.

She said: "At sometime all parents need some support regardless of social status.

"I know for myself, my close friends and many of the 150 signatures on the petition, that what is being echoed is that having this support in our community provides preventative care for families, which not only cuts costs on all services but gives the vital support to our children in the most important developmental years."

The groups are free to attend and are run by trained professionals who can help signpost families to other services and the informal support between families.

People who have signed the petition to save the groups have commented that it has helped their post natal depression and helped fathers have structured time to build relationships with their children; adoptive parents have commented on the confidence it's given them.

On user said: "I am an adoptive parent so for me it was massive because I couldn't go to the NCT classes because I wasn't ever pregnant; so here it is, open, accessible – you just turn up and no one is judging you.You get trained staff and that is what we will lose."

Another user pledged her support for the service. She said: "It is the only place you can come to have safe areas to have a newborn and four-year-old and it is just fantastic.

"There was no discussion about losing the service, we would all be willing to pay for it, I just absolutely love it; it is a real, real shame – it will be missed massively."

The county council need to save £47million by 2017/18 and cut youth services by £1million.

A spokesperson from Dorset County Council said: "We are committed to delivering the best service for families.

"Part of that is to regularly review the services we offer and to adjust future needs.

"We wrote to parents informing them that we are no longer continuing with some services, the centre lead invited parents to discuss any concerns they may have, however, to date no one has taken this offer up.

"We have been touched by the positive comments in the petition and how much our services are valued.

"We will continue to work with families, however we must also evolve our service to meet the needs of the community.

"Our services are not static and we encourage the community to work with us, so that together we can provide the widest range of services – but not all services can be directly delivered by the children's centres.

"Anyone wishing to participate in the decision making process of the centre would be welcome at the centres advisory board. If you would like more information about this please contact the centre directly."

Cllr Kayes added: "I will be presenting this petition to the relevant committee at Dorset County Council and asking that Bridport Children's Centre is given leeway to use their funding to keep these groups open.

"In a time of austerity, they are more than ever needed. It would be a disaster to lose them."

■ TWO well used and much loved children's groups – 'Stay and Play' and 'Saturdads' – are at risk of being cut in Bridport, so parents and users have come together to launch a petition in the hopes of saving the services

NICKY Sweetland, 39, after growing up in Lyme Regis returned to the town seven years ago, with her two children as a fitness instructor.

Seven years later she is now a respected theatre critic, watching four West End shows a week, interviewing the rich and famous and a contributor for BBC Radio Kent.

● HOW did you end up as a London Theatre Critic?
I WAS a fitness instructor for over 10 years, but my body had started to creak a bit, so I started to look around for other things I could do. I answered an advert on Twitter, which was asking for a theatre blogger and after writing for London Theatre Direct for a few weeks, started to get job offers from other web sites and publications. I was then very lucky, as Phillip Evans, who is managing director of View From Newspapers, offered me the opportunity of writing for the London group of papers he also owns. Just over a year later, I now write three pages a week for the group of papers and have a weekly spot on BBC Radio Kent.

● DO you remember the first show you reviewed and what you said about it?
I CAN'T remember the first show, because I was so amazed at being given the chance to do my dream job, that the beginning of my career was a bit of a blur, but one of them was Cats at the London Palladium. I was writing for three different publications at the time, so had to write three completely different reviews for the same show. Luckily, I had seen the Lloyd Webber musical as a teenager so knew it well and loved the new production. I remember being really pleased with all of the feline jokes I managed to include in the reviews.

● WHAT'S the most important thing to remember when reviewing a show?
I THINK it's important to remember that people's tastes are different, so even if I haven't liked it, if it is presented well, I can't write a bad review. I watched Michael Crawford recently in a new stage production of The Go Between, which was really beautifully done, but just far too slow for my taste. It's also important to try to be positive if possible, which means, at times, you have to be quite forgiving. It's much easier to look for the negatives, but it makes the experience much more pleasurable, if you can enjoy the good things about a show.

● YOU also review local stage shows as well?
I'M IN the really fortunate position of being able to see a vast array of theatre, from big budget West End musicals, to small local productions and often on consecutive nights. People ask me which I prefer, but actually I like both. On a number of occasions, I've seen local productions, which have been better performed than some professional shows in London.

● DO you think amateur dramatics is improving in local areas?
DEFINITELY. We've got a wealth of talent in the area and local groups are getting braver and more proficient at performing different types of productions. Whether you are interested in musicals, plays or pantomimes, it's worth visiting your local theatres, as the shows are often comparable to the professional offerings you will find further afield.

60 SECOND INTERVIEW

● WHAT'S your favourite West End show and why?
MY favourite show is Wicked. It's been in the West End for nearly ten years and I've seen it 18 times. I love the music, but I also love its themes of acceptance and friendship. I once tried to win a part in the West End production, by submitting a video of myself, dressed as the green witch and singing the show's most famous song, Defying Gravity, while bouncing on a trampoline. I got to the semi final and won free tickets to the show, but sadly, never got to go on the stage. I've also performed a few times with the show's most famous star, Kerry Ellis, who has been a huge supporter of my career.

● WHICH show are you most looking forward to seeing make its debut in the West End?
I'M hugely excited that I've got the opportunity to see the new Harry Potter and the Cursed Child in a couple of weeks time. I'm a big fan of the books and films, so I can't wait to find out what happens to the characters next. I love the fact that they have decided to present the next episode of the magical saga as a theatrical production, because I think it will encourage a different audience into the West End.

● WHICH three West End stars would you like to have dinner with and why?
THE first one would be Tony award winner, Frances Ruffelle, who played the role of the street urchin, Eponine in the original London cast of Les Miserables. I've met Frances on a number of occasions and apart from the fact that she's an ultra cool stage star, we have a lot in common. I'd also love to have a night out with Sheridan Smith, as I loved her in Funny Girl and I'm sure she is great fun, and Kerry Ellis, who has starred in hundreds of West End shows including Wicked, Cats and We Will Rock You, so I could repay her for all the help and encouragement she's given me in my career.

St John's volunteers rush to help woman's aid

by Lottie Welch
lottie@viewnews.co.uk

TWO volunteers for the St John Ambulance in Bridport sprung into action when a woman collapsed in the playing fields near Alexandra Road.

Caroline and Graham Rendell of Queens Walk were alerted by a neighbour about the casualty and rushed to help the patient.

Caroline arrived first, who was told an ambulance had been called, and after checking the lady discovered she had no pulse and started CPR.

Graham arrived and assisted Caroline with CPR, along with a member of the public and continued until the first of two ambulances arrived.

Caroline and Graham continued to help the ambulance crews until the air ambulance landed and the medical team arrived.

The patient was flown to Dorset County Hospital.

A spokesperson for South Western Ambulance service said: "We were called at 10.55am on Saturday, June 25th to a 60-year-old female in cardiac arrest.

"We attended along with the air ambulance and CPR was given at the scene which managed to bring her back around again.

"She was taken to Dorset County Hospital by air ambulance."

Teachers' action hits Dorset schools

FIVE schools across Bridport and Beaminster were affected by affected by teacher's strike action in Dorset yesterday (Tuesday, July 5th).

The walkout, which includes members of the National Union of Teachers (NUT), is due to disputes with government over contracts and funding.

Margaret Morrissey, Dorchester-based founder of national parents group, ParentsOutLoud, said: "I first became involved in the PTAs during the 1980s strike [the first in over two decades].

"All that achieved was to build bad feeling between parents and teachers, a rift that has never really healed.

"Teachers are still accused of having long holidays and a relatively easy career compared to most parents in the big world outside school.

"The strike sets an appalling example to children – if you cannot have what you want all the time, walk out.

"I was an Ofsted inspector and have great respect for teachers; they fashion our children's future, possible they should have higher wages.

"If teachers work with parents, all schools will improve 100 per cent.

"Only 24 per cent of NUT membership voted for this strike action.

"As a parents group, ParentsOutLoud thank and admire those dedicated teachers who have the vocation to teach our children and would never stoop to strike action."

Petition in support of the mayor

A PETITION in support of the Mayor of Bridport, Councillor Ros Kayes, keeping her role has attracted 467 signatures.

Cllr Kayes came under fire after comments she made following the EU referendum result and calls were made for her to stand down.

She apologised and claimed that the post had been made in a private capacity and was intended for just friends and family, but said it was circulated to the public after her account was hacked.

But support for Cllr Kayes continues to rise with many writing in to the View from Bridport (see page 5) calling on the mayor to receive recognition on all the good things she has done for the town.

She has campaigned to keep local hospitals, bus services, and youth centres and has worked to prevent the privatisation of the Dorset County Hospital (DCH) pathology lab. She is now supporting the campaign to save the Kingfisher ward at DCH.

The petition can be found at https://you.38degrees.org. uk/petitions/keep-ros-kayes-as-mayor-of-bridport

A petition calling on Cllr Kayes to resign has received 231 signatures, which claims that the comments she made were not acceptable.

So far the town council has not commented on the situation but stated "The legal position is – Local Government Act 1972 – that the chairman of the council, who is the mayor, once elected remains in office unless they resign or are disqualified."

Bus strikes set for fourth week

FIRST bus drivers have been continuing their industrial action in Weymouth and Bridport this week.

Stoppages are due to take place today (Wednesday, July 6th), Friday, July 8th and Sunday, July 10th – with extra days now added to continue the dispute until mid-July.

The Unite union claims that local drivers are paid less than other First branches – £8.80 an hour, compared to £9.50 in Yeovil.

First say that the majority of their services are not affected by the industrial action and have issued a timetable which shows the effect on each route.

Unite regional officer, Bob Lanning, said negotiations had become deadlocked with seven months of talks not taking the dispute any further towards resolution.

Despite the action the bus company says it has been able to operate the majority of its services during the dispute.

The latest additions to the strike days are Wednesday July 13th, Friday July, 15th and Sunday, July 17th.

First has called for the union to join the company for arbitration at ACAS as a means of resolving the long-running dispute.

Warning over phone scam

DORSET Police have received several reports of a scam telephone call over the past two days.

It involves an automated message being left, claiming to be from HMRC, and suggesting that a lawsuit is being filed against the recipient.

The message asks the receiver to press one to be connected to an operator to discuss it. This is a scam.

A spokesperson for Dorset Police said: "If you receive a call similar to this, simply hang up the phone, do not press one, and do not engage with anybody on the phone.

"Do not pass on any personal details – one resident of Symondsbury was asked initially for his National Insurance number, he refused but was then subject to some nasty verbal abuse – a sure sign that these people are not legitimate.

"Please report any such calls to Dorset Police on 101, and/or Action Fraud on 0300 123 2040."

Wet end to exciting sports day at Bridport Primary

WHAT looked like an exciting end to a great day of sport at Bridport Primary School was brought to a premature end by heavy rain at lunchtime last Tuesday, that wiped out the last of the three sessions featuring Year 5 and 6 pupils.

Reception, Year 1 and Year 2 pupils started the day in warm, sunny conditions with blue sky, and competed in six disciplines involving speed, accuracy and teamwork before finishing with a series of running races.

In line with the theme of French Week, Bleu (blue) were the overall winners.

Years 3 and 4 enjoyed equally good conditions as they battled through a similar set of events which ended in a thrilling finish with Bleu once again the winners, but two of the other three teams just two points behind.

Pupils, mums, dads and the staff all took part in races cheered on by their children.

Unfortunately the weather forecasters were right, and it started raining just before 1pm and got heavier, forcing the cancellation of the older groups. The enthusiasm of the children regardless of ability was superb, and with superb organisation from the staff, the whole day was a credit to everyone.

■ I AM writing in support of Ros Kayes. Having been a mental health service user for many years, I have found that Ros, our mayor, has always been there for us.

I feel that people in this area owe her a lot and many of us regard her as a mental health champion.

I also feel that instead of being slated, she deserves an honour.

ROZ COPSON, West Bay

Support for under fire mayor

■ LAST week the View From published a link to a petition which grossly misrepresents the content of an article written by Cllr Ros Kayes, published on June 22nd.

It appears to have been dreadfully distorted. The piece said that:

1) The professional campaign for Leave had told lies. This is undoubtedly the case as with the £350 million promised to the NHS. Ms Kayes said that to say that EU Commissioners made EU laws was also untrue. Nowhere did she call all Leave voters liars.

2) She then asked people who complain that "These dirty 'Muslims', 'Poles', 'Lithuanians', 'Romanians' – they come here and steal our jobs" to consider whether this could be deemed racist. She said that racism was deplorable and that she feared it was motivating some voters in the referendum.

The escalation of post referendum racist attacks nationally, and the removal by the police of a British flag accompanied by the slogan 'Freedom from Parasites' from an estate in Beaminster last week, gives evidence that among some voters racism is indeed alive and well.

Ros feared these voters might tip the balance in the referendum. To have said she was concerned about race however was NOT calling all Leave voters racist.

3) Ros then asked voters to be aware that certain types of campaigner – those most likely to have racially extreme views, or to be ignorant of the facts about the EU – would be sure to be out in force on the day of the referendum as well as all the other people voting Leave and Remain.

She appealed to voters not to be influenced by such people and to vote to remain in the EU because of its safety in the current international climate.

I'm very sorry if you have been fooled into signing this petition without being aware of the facts. They are as above.

Ros Kayes said no such thing.

ALI EDGLEY, by email

■ LOCAL members of the Green Party wish to express their support for the Mayor of Bridport, Ros Kayes.

We totally support both the general sentiment and the anger expressed by Ros in her comment on social media regarding the EU referendum.

Yes, she should have expressed her frustration with greater sensitivity and avoided generalisations, but perhaps these were the only words to fully convey the anger that many of us feel regarding the fact that the futures of our young people, the vast majority of whom voted to remain in the EU, have been so severely jeopardised by those who voted to leave, and who did so largely in ignorance of the truth.

Whilst campaigning in Bridport with the Remain side I was astonished at the level of ignorance as to what the EU actually was and how it worked, and in the belief, widely held by many in the older generation, that if we could leave the EU we could return to some 'golden age' - an age when the UK would be 'great' again.

Time can not be reversed. The future, which is owned by the young more than the old, is about cooperation and working together to solve global problems, not about individual national competition and power.

I was even more astonished by the degree of inaccurate information asserted as fact by many of the politicians who campaigned to Leave.

A decision of this importance required the voting public to understand the issues, and many clearly did not.

And it was incumbent on those who should have understood the issues, the politicians, to share this understanding.

So perhaps the real target of public anger should be those politicians who, in campaigning to leave, camouflaged so many lies as truths and purposely misled the public into making such a disastrous decision.

Cllr KELVIN CLAYTON, Chairman, West & South Dorset Green Party

■ WE ARE writing in support of Bridport Town Mayor, Ros Kayes, also a highly respected politician at district and county levels, as she faces criticism.

We both know Ros to be an incredibly well thought of, considerate, committed human being and politician and a huge asset to our Dorset community.

These comments were not intended for public consumption, but for family and friends via private settings and were written in the aftermath of a totally unexpected referendum result last Friday. She would not have been alone in her devastation at the result.

No-one will feel more remorse than Ros that this has happened. But let's not forget also the far greater offence of having her personal site hacked out of malicious intent.

We have a right to live in a tolerant and inclusive society in Bridport and Ros embodies those values through and through.

There is absolutely no need for Ros to even think about resigning; Bridport and Dorset would be hugely worse off without her and she has made her apology.

Let's all move on and allow Ros to continue to pursue her very significant contribution to Bridport and Dorset communities without this hanging over her.

ROSIE & ROY MATHISEN, Bridport

Where is the honour in blaming others?

■ I DO hope that our mayor finds comfort in the support gained in her counter petition to stay on (regardless). And it is a tragic disaster – I sympathise.

But this cannot undo the offence caused, the damage to institutions, nor the poor attempt to cover-up by misleading claims presented to the public.

We wonder if the police have rounded up those nasty hackers yet?

The plea to keep Ros Kayes on goes 'don't let the racists win' and is categorised as about: 'crime, justice, equality, peace and gender'?

With this, hundreds of people have been sent links to a site with comments as offensive as her own-clearly to deflect the attention elsewhere.

It would be easy to believe that Ros is being persecuted by hoards of racists rather than failing to take responsibility for her own actions.

The Mayor of Dorchester, Tim Harries, rightly said: "The campaign was despicable – terrible slurs and bringing the Nazis into it. It was disgraceful."

I voted 'in', but if some friends voted 'out', I strongly object to them being labelled as 'racists, liars and bigots' in our local press. Many people voted for democracy or for sovereignty, etc.

This is highly inflamatory language – a violation of every council's code of conduct. And Facebook is a public platform, not to be used for the promotion of conflict and mistrust if you hold office.

As leader of Lib Dems West Dorset, Councillor Kayes has presented the Lib Dem run town council with an unavoidable decision, if it is to keep its good reputation and integrity.

Is it really now OK to describe the older generation as 'bigoted'?

Hundreds of local residents are asking for the mayor's resignation and they are not racists or criminals – they just want an honourable mayor of sound judgement.

Sorry Ros, but there's just no honour in blaming others. Take a break, and one day please come back with a gentler approach.

People here need to hear positive words that bring cohesion to our community.

Bridport commemorates the Battle of the Somme

by Lottie Welch
lottie@viewnews.co.uk

MEMBERS of the community gathered at the memorial outside St Mary's Church on South Street, Bridport, to mark 100 years since the start of the Battle of the Somme and remember those who lost their lives.

The Reverend Andrew Evans led the early morning service at 7.15am on Friday, July 1st.

Brigadier John Dean read the Exhortation as well as placing a wreath on the memorial with Bridport Mayor, Councillor Ros Kayes after the last post was sounded by Anne Stone. Those present were also welcome to lay a token of remembrance.

The Reverend Andrew Evans read out the names of those killed from Bridport and the reverend Pete Stone read aloud an account of the battle from Private Charles Taylor, 13th Battalion, Yorks and Lancs.

The Bridport branch of the Royal British Legion, both men's and women's, the Royal Naval Association, the Royal Air Force Association and the Dorset and Devonshire Regimental Association were all represented with standard bearers.

Luke Woods, of the rifles regiment, took along a poppy he picked when passing the Somme on the way to Normany for D Day commemorations, which will be on parade throughout the Somme memorial services.

It will then be placed in Bridport Museum until it is auctioned to raise money for care for casualties, a charity that assists members of the Rifles Regimental family who were found to be in need.

Residents in Shipton Gorge held a commemorative service at St Martin's Church, led by the Reverend Stephen Batty.

The congregation included Mr David Jenkins, deputy Lieutenant, and Sir Philip Williams, High Sheriff of Dorset, as well as standard bearers from the Bride Valley branch of the Royal British Legion and from the Bridport branch of the Dorset and Devonshire Regimental Association.

Fatal crash drug driver jailed

A WOMAN who caused the death of a 59-year-old woman in a head-on collision after taking drugs has been jailed for six years.

Natalie Roach, 29 and of Lyme Regis, was sentenced at Dorchester Crown Court on Friday, July 1st, after pleading guilty at an earlier hearing to causing death by careless driving while over the prescribed limit of a specified drug – cannabis, and a second similar count for cocaine.

She was also disqualified from driving for five years and told she would have to take an extended retest before getting her licence back.

The court heard that at around 2.35pm on Sunday, March 15th, a two-vehicle fatal road traffic collision occurred on the A35 close to Scott's Lane in Monkton Wyld near to Raymond's Hill.

Roach was driving a blue Peugeot 206 car toward Axminster when she crossed onto the wrong side of the road, crashing into a silver Toyota Prius car that was being driven in the opposite direction by Neil Osborn.

Mr Osborn, 66 and of Louth in Lincolnshire, sustained serious injuries in the collision that required a lengthy stay in hospital. His wife, 59-year-old Stella, died from her injuries at the scene.

Roach sustained serious injuries that also required extensive treatment.

The court heard that Roach was not the owner of the car, was not insured to drive the vehicle and had an expired substantive driving licence.

Roach told police during an interview that she had taken cannabis, heroin and cocaine from 9pm the night before until 5am on the morning of the crash.

The court heard that Roach's blood was tested and analysed. A total of 509ml of cocaine was found in her blood – the legal prescribed limit is 50ml. Tests also revealed that 3.1ml of cannabis was also found in her blood. The prescribed limit is 2ml.

Police Sergeant Joe Pardey, of Dorset Police's Road Traffic Unit, said: "This case highlights that driving while intoxicated whether through alcohol or drugs has huge effects on a driver's ability to drive carefully and competently.

"The consequences can be tragic. A family has lost a wife, mother, grandmother and friend and the effects of this collision will never go away. The death of Mrs Osborn was unnecessary and avoidable.

"While any sentence passed will never be enough to replace a life, I hope that the court's decision today will provide a further deterrent to those who think it is acceptable to drive under the influence of drink or drugs.

"Dorset Police will continue to detect, enforce and charge those found to be committing drink and drug driving offences."

Symondsbury summer fair raises record sums

SYMONDSBURY Primary School's summer fair has raised record breaking sums this year, despite the wet weather.

Hundreds of people turned out to enjoy an afternoon of entertainment, fun and games, great food and lovely stalls – raising over £1,000

Some of the highlights included dance performances by the school children and a selection of song performed by Class Four, currently in rehearsal for their summer production.

Unfortunately for brave headteacher Emma Roberts, another highlight was the naughty teacher stocks, where children queued up to throw wet sponges at her.

Sponsors of the fair, Baboo Gelato, were on hand to sell delicious ice cream and to congratulate the winner of the star raffle prize donated by them – £100 cash. Other raffle prizes were donated by Olive Tree restaurant, Transition Running, Hare Salon and many more.

The homemade cake stall sold out of treats, the barbecue was as popular as ever and the pupils' favourite jolly jar stall attracted long queues before it was even open for business.

Organiser Karen Meek said: "This year's fair was one of the most successful yet with so many people commenting on what a lovely atmosphere it had. Lots of smiling faces, even when the rain came down!

"I would like to thank all the wonderful volunteers who helped put the fair together, the pupils who ran stalls or performed and, of course, all our wonderful business supporters who generously donated raffle prizes."

CHILDREN performed dances to entertain the crowds

The final takings are still being counted, but proceeds from the fair look set to break the school's record with over £1,300 being raised.

Headteacher Emma Roberts said: "What a wonderful result from so much hard work! £1,300 goes a long way towards updating our school library space over the summer with much needed new books and to create a lovely space for the children to read and learn.

"I am forever telling people how great Symondsbury school is, not just because of our results, but because of the brilliant attitude of the pupils, the wonderful support of the wider school community and the beautiful surroundings we are lucky enough to enjoy.

"The summer fair brings all those things together to create a truly special event of which the whole school should be proud.

"It also launches us unto an exciting final few weeks of term that includes sports day, our musical performance, class trips, the leavers ball and lots to celebrate after a busy year."

THE Port Bredy Allstars majorettes will be performing in Groves Nurseries in Bridport this Saturday to raise money for their trip to Jersey to join in with the Battle of Flowers carnival

Local majorettes at Groves this Saturday

Members of Bridport based Port Bredy Allstars majorettes hope to raise more funds for their trip to the Battle of Flowers carnival, being held in Jersey in August, when they perform at Groves Nurseries in Bridport this Saturday.

Groves' managing director Charlie Groves said: "It is a great honour for Port Bredy Allstars to be invited to take part as they will be the only troupe there.

"They need to fundraise to meet the travel costs and so we thought that our customers would love to see them perform and, as they will be representing the town of Bridport as such an iconic event, offer some support."

The event has taken place in Jersey for over 100 years and is one of the largest floral carnivals in Europe.

It gets its name because in the early days, the floral floats were mostly horse-drawn and tradition at the time was for flowers and petals to be torn from the float and thrown to girls in the crowd, in the hope that one would be thrown back.

The Port Bredy Allstars will be performing at Groves Nurseries between 11am and 2pm on Saturday (July 9th).

West Bay chapel open for discovery

The former Methodist Chapel at West Bay will be open to the public for them to find out more about plans to turn it into a new discovery centre.

Members of the community are welcome to come along on Friday, July 15th between 11.30am and 4.30pm, which also provides a rare opportunity to see inside the Grade II listed building and local landmark.

The Bridport Area Development Trust (BADT), a charity which aims to bring about long-term social, economic and environmental benefits in the area, are inviting people to see inside the chapel and learn more about plans to restore the building and use it as a new discovery centre for West Bay.

The new centre plans to tell the story of West Bay, its harbour, history and development as a tourist resort, using changing displays and interactive elements.

It will aim to encourage both visitors and local people to explore all West Bay has to offer.

It will also be a starting point for a range of discovery trails around the area, a meeting place for guided walks and a study base for visiting students.

The trust also hope it will offer a much-needed wet weather attraction, particularly offering some indoor family-friendly space.

Trevor Ware, chair of BADT, is hopeful that the project will attract lots of local support.

He said: "The chapel on the beach, as it is known, is a much-loved landmark of West Bay, and we are keen to restore it to its former glory and turn it into a space which will offer real value back to the residents and businesses of West Bay, and the resort's thousands of visitors each year."

The restoration works and adaptations are likely to cost in excess of £150,000 and progress for the scheme is largely dependent on obtaining grant funding.

Mr Ware added: "The first job is to secure and restore the building and that is where the largest sum of money needs to be raised.

"Once the construction work is complete the building will then have equipment and displays added."

John West, chair of West Bay Community Forum and a member of the steering group for the project, said: "We want to create a modern and welcoming space that also captures the essence of this historic and atmospheric community building.

"It will be about so much more than just tourist information, it will be a living repository for knowledge about West Bay and an all year round resource for the people who live here and, of course, our visitors."

For more information about the project and to volunteer, get involved or make a donation, visit www.westbayvisitorcentre.org.uk

Poor summer fails to dent Melplash Show annual garden competition

DESPITE the challenging weather conditions for gardeners this year, the Melplash Agricultural Society annual garden competition was once again very well supported.

Over two days, judges travelled across west Dorset visiting 17 gardens in and around Lyme Regis, Charmouth, Chideock, Beaminster, Mosterton and Bridport.

The judges this year were last year's overall winner and winner of the medium garden, Mrs Jane Pinkster from Beaminster, and winner of the allotment category, Mr John Studley from Hinton St George.

The winner of the best large garden was Mrs Derby and Mr Smith from Mangerton, narrowly beating Mrs Corsen's garden in Stoke Abbott.

The best medium garden award went to Erika Savory from Lyme Regis, closely followed by Les Loveridge, also from Lyme Regis.

First place for the best small garden went to Jerry Goade in Chideock with second place being awarded to Stephanie Harvey in Bridport.

Stephen Hiller from Charmouth was found to have the best allotment with Chris Thorner not far behind.

After much consideration by judges, the award for the best overall garden was given to Erika Savory.

The special award was given to Donald Jolliffe of Netherbury.

One of the judges said: "Mr Jolliffe has made excellent use of a very small space.

"In the front garden there are a wide variety of plants offering a beautiful display of colour, although a little cramped the vegetable patch is full of a variety of healthy plants.

"It was a pleasure to hear that Mr Jolliffe knew the names of all his plants."

Photos of the winning gardens will be available to view in the horticultural marquee at the Melplash Show on Thursday, August 25th.

The winners will receive their prizes in the horticultural tent at 4.30pm.

Town's positive food culture attracts attention

A SERIES of focus groups will examine how Bridport's positive food culture is helping local people to make better food choices for personal health and for the health of the planet.

Bournemouth University researcher Dr Juliet Wiseman has teamed up with Linda Hull from Foodfuture Bridport to examine what makes the town a beacon for good food in Dorset.

Dr Wiseman said: "The NuFeast project started in Poole but attention quickly turned to Bridport where many factors of a positive food culture are already in place."

Anyone wanting to take part in the project need to live in or near Bridport and be over 18.

More than 20 people have already signed up and another ten people are needed to join the project.

Linda Hull said: "The conversations are set to be lively and will also cover what threats and opportunities exist for our access to good food.

"We import 40 per cent of our food so there are bound to be changes as we enter the post-Brexit era."

Everyone taking part will be rewarded with a 'Spend a Tenner Locally' voucher to spend at participating businesses.

The results of the NuFeast project will be used to share best practice with other towns and cities to make improved choices about access to local, sustainable food.

The sessions will take place from 7pm to 9pm on Tuesday, July 19th at Waitrose and Thursday, July 21st at Mountfield.

To book a place contact lindahull.work@gmail.com stating the preferred date.

New president takes over at Rotary club

MEMBERS of the Rotary Club of Bridport have welcomed a new president for 2016.

Roger Stoodley has taken over from Clive Jeanes, and together with the chairs of the committees has outlined plans for the next year.

A spokesperson for the Rotary Club of Bridport said: "Until recently ours was a men-only club but we now have several women members, three of whom will now be in charge of important committees: international, youth opportunities and fundraising. This is a most welcome development.

"Roger emphasised our wish to recruit more members – particularly those in a 40 to 60 age range – to make the pattern of meetings more flexible and sociable, and above all to have fun.

"The president's charity this year will be the local cancer support organisation, The Living Tree.

"We value our link with the Sir John Colfox Academy and will continue to fund and support the Youth Speaks competition and 'outward-bound' leadership courses.

"Our fundraising activities, and the generosity of our business partners, also allows us to support Shelter Box and Water Aid, both disaster-relief equipment, the Rotary International programme for polio eradication, and a wide range of local charities.

"Details of our donations and activities can be found on our website, www.bridportrotary.org.uk and we strongly encourage anyone possibly interested in joining the club to get in touch informally."

The club can be contacting by calling 01308 422139.

Mobile libraries' future is decided

DORSET County Council's cabinet has voted to maintain one home mobile library service van and withdraw three mobile library service vans.

This decision follows a consultation with library users and local town and parish councils to look at alternative ways to access the library service.

People who are unable to access a library due to a disability or frailty will continue to have access to books, and other reading material, delivered to their homes through a partnership with the Royal Voluntary Service (RVS).

The council will continue to take the home mobile library service van to residential homes.

Cllr Deborah Croney, Dorset County Council cabinet member for learning and skills said: "These changes will help focus provision of the mobile library service on people of all ages who cannot get to a library building.

"The consultation has given us a clear understanding of the issues and we will use this information with the local knowledge gained from the mobile library officers to work with local communities."

Full details of the report can be found at www.dorsetforyou.com/committees/county

Dorset police will not tolerate hate crime

AS hate crime continues to rise across the country, Dorset Police would like to reassure residents that reports of the crime will be dealt with strongly.

Since the referendum result on the status of British membership of the European Union was announced on Friday, June 24th, Dorset Police has seen no related increase in reports of hate crime as compared to the same period last year.

From June 23rd to June 29th last year, a total of five hate crimes were recorded, and from June 23rd to June 29th this year, a total of six hate crimes were reported.

But Dorset Police say they will remain vigilant and firm in its resolve that hate crime is unacceptable and will be dealt with robustly.

Assistant Chief Constable Mark Cooper said: "All forms of hate crime are unacceptable in any circumstances.

"Hatred not only has the potential to cause serious physical and emotional harm, it damages communities and undermines the diversity and tolerance we should be instead celebrating.

"Dorset Police will respond robustly to any incidents. Tackling hate crime is a priority for the force and we are working with our communities and partners to stamp it out.

"The force is working to build increased confidence in reporting hate crime. we want to encourage victims to come forward in confidence either directly to us or to the supporting agencies we work with.

"In partnership with Borough of Poole and Bournemouth Borough Council, Dorset Police have developed an innovative hate crime app.

"The app encourages people to report these crimes to enable the police to bring offenders to justice. The app can be downloaded by typing 'Hate Crime 2' into your app search engine."

Hate crime can take many form, including verbal abuse, physical assault, domestic abuse, harassment and damage to property.

Such crime is targeted at a person because of prejudice towards a person's race, religion, disability, sexual orientation or transgender identity.

Karen Duke-Glover, who leads Dorset Police's dedicated people, confidence and equality team, said: "We are committed to promoting equality and diversity in the provision of all our services.

"Tackling hate crime is a priority for the force. We will continue to work closely with Prejudice Free Dorset and other partnership organisations, to ensure we are fully aware of any issues facing our local community.

"The most important thing victims or witnesses of hate crime can do is come forward. Hate crime is known to be widely unreported.

"We are sensitive to all the issues, fears and barriers when the public report incidents to Dorset Police. If you have concerns about notifying the police, there are other places and people you can report to.

"Third party reporting centres in Dorset include Access Dorset, Autism Wessex, Borough of Poole, Bournemouth Borough Council, Bournemouth People First, Dorset County Council, Intercom Trust, People First Dorset, Poole Forum and Victim Support."

Local ice cream maker opens kiosk

THE Baboo team have officially launched their new ice cream kiosk at West Bay.

The gelato company's ice cream is handmade in Bridport and Baboo was set up last year by Annie Hanbury, a trained gelatiere.

The kiosk opened in May and as well as offering a range of different ice cream flavours in waffle cones, it also sells their own ice lollies and large tubs of ice cream to take home.

Dozens of people turned out and joined the team on Friday, June 24th to celebrate the occasion, enjoying cocktails and ice cream samples.

Annie said: "It turned into a beautiful evening, I was worried about it at the beginning as it was cold and windy but it was good – it turned into a great success. Everyone had fun, tasted the different flavours and were very complimentary."

AVENUE INTERIORS

AVENUE INTERIORS moved into Dorchester's Brewery Square November last year and has fast become the go to place for stylish furniture and quirky gifts in Dorchester. Nestled between the Health Centre and Paninis, Avenue Interiors is run by Gary Lancaster and his partner Gaynor, and offers high quality furniture at Dorchester prices, with free local delivery.

At Avenue Interiors you will find traditional, contemporary and retro furniture to suit any decor and, being an independent business, Gary and his partner Gaynor can source almost any item not in stock. Gary says, "We look for quality materials and finish, and cannot resist the tactile and slightly quirky statement pieces, like our giant enamelled fruit. As well as furniture we also stock an extensive range of unusual decorative mirrors, clocks and ornaments, lighting and beautiful throws and cushions. We have new pieces coming in all of the time."

Gary developed an appreciation of craftsmanship and a love of wood as a young apprentice carpenter after attending Thomas Hardy School, he later became involved in shop fitting and the refurbishment of pubs and hostelries, where design was a major factor and it was that the birth of Avenue Interiors evolved naturally.

Avenue Interiors has recently created their new website www.avenueinteriors.co.uk which is constantly having new products added and still only shows just a small selection of the stock you will find in the Brewery Square store. You really are encouraged to go and see the lovely stock for yourself.

Gary continues, "We have only been at Brewery Square for a few months but our customers and the other traders have made the whole experience enjoyable and have been really welcoming and complimentary."

Avenue Interiors is open 7 days a week, 9.30am to 5.30pm Monday to Saturday and 10am to 4pm on Sundays.

New operation to support Dorset motorcyclists

A NEW operation focusing on educating motorcyclists in Dorset has been launched.

Dorset Police's 'Operation Wheels' will run throughout the summer period and is a preventative campaign to reduce motorcycle casualties.

Riders are recognised as being the most at risk road user group. Whilst motorcycles account for only one per cent of the total road miles travelled, motorcyclists account for nearly 25 per cent of those seriously injured or killed on Dorset roads during 2010 to 2014.

Officers from the Alliance Road Policing Team will be attending various motorcycle events, offering advice to riders and educating those who are caught speeding or driving in a careless or dangerous manner on the roads in Dorset.

To understand the circumstances in which riders are being killed or critically injured, police data was combined with medical data.

Inspector Matt Butler from the Alliance Road Policing Team and Dr Ian Mew from Dorset County Hospital were recently presented with the Trauma, Audit and Research Network (TARN) annual award, recognises positive use of trauma data to improve the quality of care for trauma patients.

The data analysed showed that 78 per cent of those killed or seriously injured were riding a motorcycle of 500cc and above with 52 per cent aged between 40 and 59-years-old.

In 74 per cent of cases, the collision was caused by rider error and over a quarter of those killed or critically injured were riding in convoy with friends and the riders were nearly always male.

Dorset roads that have statistically seen the most collisions have been identified as 'red routes'.

Officers from the Alliance Road Policing Team will be patrolling these routes with the intention of encouraging riders to ride safely. Drivers of cars and trucks will also be reminded of the greater risks riders face.

Inspector Matt Butler from the Alliance Road Policing Team, said: "The warm weather means more bikes on the road. Throughout the summer, Operation Wheels will be encouraging bikers to ride safe and drivers to 'think bike'.

"Bikers – please have a look at the Bikesafe website. It will make a difference.

"Some small changes can make bikers safer, more aware and more obvious to other road users.

"Even the most experienced riders can benefit from refresher sessions to improve their bike skills."

For more information about courses run with Bikesafe, visit www.bikesafe.co.uk/locate-a-force/dorset/about-dorset-bikesafe

School's space invasion

THE recent half term started with a bang for pupils at Bridport Primary School when they were tasked with investigating some strange going-ons.

While they were enjoying their half-term break, something had crash-landed in the school grounds and it was the children's job to work out what it was and where it had come from.

As part of their science week, a space adventure took place across the school with all the children taking part in activities to investigate the planets, as well as an artist joining them to help build a giant spaceship.

Two View From reporters were also called in to the school to find out what had been going on and to give their top tips to pupils in Year Five and Year Six.

Councils call for housing and employment sites

A CALL for sites suitable for housing and employment is being issued by West Dorset District Council and Weymouth and Portland Borough Council.

The two councils are reviewing the recently adopted local plan and to help with this process are asking people to identify sites that may have potential for development over the next 15 years and beyond.

Cllr Ian Gardner, West Dorset District Council's portfolio holder for planning, said: "The call for sites is an opportunity for agents, landowners and developers to submit land which they believe could be developed to meet future demand for homes and jobs.

"This will help to ensure that there is sufficient land available within our local areas to meet our development needs."

Cllr Ray Nowak, Weymouth and Portland Borough Council's briefholder for environment and sustainability, said: "An assessment of land availability is needed to provide a realistic assumption about the availability, suitability and likely economic viability of land to meet the identified need for housing and economic development uses over the local plan time frame."

If anyone is aware of any sites that may have potential, complete and submit the site submission form, which can be downloaded at www.dorsetforyou.gov.uk/SHLAA/west/weymouth

Alternatively paper copies can be requested by emailing s.policy@westdorset-weymouth.gov.uk

All site owner details submitted will remain confidential and to be assessed, sites will need to be submitted by Friday, August 19th. Sites submitted after this deadline will however still be considered.

Local rewards offered to encourage museum donations

LOCAL businesses and artisans are encouraging donations to Bridport Museum's redevelopment project by providing exciting rewards.

Emily Hicks, curator at Bridport Museum, said: "We are absolutely thrilled to announce even more wonderful rewards for our Crowdfunding campaign, from Bella's, Bridport Lighting Centre, Chocolatiers Café, Denhay Farm, Jurassic Coast team, the Pickled Ginger and Olive Tree restaurants, and Stephen Banks, to name just a few!

"Whilst we have a tough target to achievae and a very tight deadline, we are hoping our local community will continue to dig deep."

One reward, which has been offered by the Olive Tree restaurant, includes head chef Simon Mazzei and his sous chef preparing canapés and a six-course Mediterranean feast, using seasonal and locally produced ingredients, for six people and talk through a selection of complementary drinks.

Mr Mazzei said: "We love Bridport, we love our local museum, we hope you do too."

Visit www.crowdfunder.co.uk/love-bridport-museum to find out more about the rewards and the campaign.

To follow progress and keep track of new rewards visit the museum's Facebook page at www.facebook.com/BridportMuseum or follow them on Twitter @bridportmuseum

Accountants don the wrong trousers

STAFF at Bridport accountants Scott Vevers, pictured, showed their wacky side by donning their strangest trousers for Wrong Trouser Day.

The event is in aid of The Grand Appeal, the Bristol Children's Hospital charity which helps sick babies and children by providing life-saving equipment, patient activities, new services and family accommodation.

Marcus Cridland, left, managing director at Scott Vevers, said: "We like to help to raise money for a worthy cause and doing it in a fun way to raise awareness. Not everyone knows about it so we hope to raise awareness and more money for the charity."

Big Mix Festival lives up to its title and reputation

Written by Harry Bullmore

WHY are pandas facing extinction? Judging from the evidence at B Sharp's Big Mix Festival, it may have something to do with their risky pass-times of stilt walking and fire-breathing.

Now, though this may have been a performer in a costume, without a doubt the festival provided everyone with an astounding array of sights and sounds.

A line-up of extremely talented musicians, a team of young entrepreneurs, artists, food suppliers, volunteers and producers combined to make this much loved event a huge success.

B Sharp CEO Fran Williams said, "Thanks to everyone who helped make it possible. It's an amazing achievement to stage an event of this scale. Its uniqueness is to have so many young people not only performing but also getting first hand experience of producing a big event. Of course, it wouldn't be the Big Mix without the fantastic generosity of the superb bands who play for us, and inspire so many young people."

This theme of bringing people together was visible throughout the festival. Families, friends, passers by and participants of all ages could be seen enjoying themselves throughout the day. Tents surrounding the arena offered activities from festival face painting to tutu making, and even the chance to decorate some of Willow Wonka's homemade cakes. Meanwhile, high quality food was provided courtesy of local businesses 'Dottie Kitchen' and 'The Galley Café'.

'Denata', a new business set up by brothers, Tom and Anthony Hartnell, was selling specialty coffees and freshly baked Portuguese pastries at the event.

Tom Hartnell revealed, "Thanks to B Sharp. It's been a perfect starting opportunity for us. It's been cool to have this music in the background all day and we sold out really quickly. This event has been great for learning all the realities of working."

This unique festival is set against a stunning, backdrop of the Jurassic Coast, as well as Lyme Regis' iconic cobb and harbour. Spectator's senses were spoiled throughout the day, as this idyllic view was accompanied by a series of acoustic and DJ performances, many of which were provided by attendees of B Sharp's weekly sessions. Guitars, keyboards, drums, gifted vocalists and even beat boxing were skilfully implemented in a succession of professional performances.

At 6pm, the crowds moved inside the theatre to continue the party. B Sharp's own 'Hub Jammers' opened the night's entertainment, with four distinct groups of young musicians merging their skills to create rich sounds topped with intelligent and often poignant lyrics.

Following this, Exeter based indie/americana trio 'Wildwood Kin' took to the stage. The band mesmerized their audience, with heavy drum beats layered underneath stunning vocal harmonies. The band themselves also showed their admiration of the local musicians on show at the festival, "It's a real privilege to come from an area of such genuinely talented, young musicians."

The festival barely left its crowd time to catch their breath, as between the musician's sets, an awesome fire-breathing duo continued the entertainment outside in the Theatre Square.

Next on the line-up was 'Gris-de-Lin'. Their moody, rock-infused sound surprised and impressed their audience in equal measure, and quickly saw the dance floor filled. Lead singer Lucy said, "it was great to play at this year's Big Mix Festival, what a warm atmosphere and special event. I grew up in Bridport and it's fantastic to see the next generation of musicians emerging, inspired and nurtured by the work of B Sharp."

The night's headliners, 'Papa Le Gal' were joined by guest horn section from King Porter Stomp, who quickly persuaded even the most reluctant of dancers to gravitate towards the front of the venue. Their indefinable, energetic sound worked in parallel with a lively crowd to create an electric atmosphere, as the town showed it was more than ready to party.

The night ended with a funky set from gifted DJ Will Lister, B Sharp alumni, who has just released his debut record, 'Phantom EP'. His intriguing use of unorthodox sounds to create his music epitomized the talent on show at the event, and rounded the event's acts off perfectly.

The 2016 Big Mix Festival lived up to its title and reputation - a big mix that gave Lyme Regis the party it deserved with a future that can be looked forward to with great anticipation. If only the same could be said for the pandas.

Jurassic Fields festival bigger and better!

JURASSIC Fields Music Festival, West Dorset's biggest music venue hits the South West this weekend. Although only its third year, its reputation for quality and value for money makes it now one of the top festivals in the whole of Dorset, and this year has a bigger and better line up than ever before.

The 5000 capacity venue has seen tickets sales soar as festival lovers from as far afield as Scotland and Northern Ireland flock to the festival to see legendary acts never seen in West Dorset before.

Undoubtedly the biggest name on the line up is Fun Lovin' Criminals, who will headlining on Saturday (July 9th) having travelled south from their performance at T in the Park in Glasgow the previous day.

The raucous group, who have taken time out of their 20th Anniversary Tour to appear at Askers Meadows, are best known for the pulp-fiction hit "Scooby Snacks" and "Love Unlimited"; a comical tribute to Barry White; will bring an explosion of bluesy, jazzy hip-hop, Latin soul and dirty rock and roll to the stage; and are well worth the entrance fee alone.

Not to be outdone Friday night's headliner will be just as impressive, with 80's Band Dr and the Medics headlining the main stage. Created by the Rev Dr. Clive Thomas Jackson, they celebrate the 30th Anniversary of the song for which they are best known for, their massive 1986 No 1 "Spirit in the Sky", which sold over 23 million copies worldwide and was number 1 in nineteen countries!

They are renowned as a superb live act; never more so than with the current line-up that delivers a unique and sensationally flamboyant show packed full of Medic'd up 80's hits!

Comedy also returns this year with Andy Askins headlining the comedy line-up, a diminutive figure who exudes an air of vulnerability as he steps up to the microphone armed with a guitar and a cheeky grin. It's an overwhelmingly misleading demeanour which serves to heighten the impact of the killer lines that he delivers. This is certainly an act you do not want to miss.

This year sees over 30 acts performing over three stages with a bigger children's area (Saturday only) than ever before, and also the advantage of the organiser's introducing children of 12 and under going for free when accompanied by an adult.

The festival is run by a not for profit organisation who aims are to provide grants and facilities for local musicians from any profit the festival may make.

You can get your tickets now from http://www.jurassicfields.com/tickets, or on the gate on the day.

Dr and the Medics

Homeward Bound

IN HOMEWARD BOUND, award winning performer Ruth Mitchell, takes a look at the dreams we hold and the cards we are dealt as she attempts to round the bases and reach home. Her show interweaves the stories of her son's dream to play major league baseball with her own Northern upbringing. Ruth will be performing Homeward Bound at The Lyric, Bridport on Saturday, July 9th.

Ruth was inspired to write Homeward Bound, in a bid to understand more about her son's passion for baseball, and in the process she uncovered the South West's fascinating and longstanding connection with the game. This includes the little known fact that Henry Chadwick, recognised in the American Baseball Hall of Fame as the 'Father of Baseball' was actually born in Exeter in 1824.

Alongside the game and its history, she also weaves in a parallel narrative about her life growing up in Bradford with both her mother and grandmother. Ruth said: "I talk about my mother's desire to act when her mother didn't want her to, she never gave up and she began acting professionally in her 50s once her own mother had died, so as well as baseball it's also about ambitions and dreams."

During her visit to Bridport, Ruth will run a writing workshop on Saturday, July 9th from 10am – 1pm. This is a unique opportunity to work with such an experienced artist and writer. Advance booking is essential, tickets £20 from 01308 423951 / admin@the-lyric.com / www.the-lyric.com.

Tickets for Homeward Bound are available from Bridport Arts Centre (01308 424204 / www.bridport-arts.com).

Spellbinding cinematic acoustic guitar at the Marine Theatre

THERE will be a rare - and possibly last chance - opportunity to see James Blackshaw perform live at the Marine Theatre on Wednesday, July 27th before he hangs up his touring boots for the near future. He plays in Lyme Regis en route to the Port Elliot festival, his last scheduled date.

Expect long instrumental tracks, sounds that transport you somewhere else - hypnotic, layered and cinematic. He also sings on a few tracks, but his music is all about the atmosphere and otherworldly space created by one man and a guitar.

James performs celestial and spirit-lifting guitar-led compositions. Meditative in quality, cinematic in scope, his music spirals gracefully across complex patterns, motifs and harmonics. He made his name as a 12-string acoustic guitarist, and his relationship with the instrument is near perfect. With an extensive back catalogue to his name on labels like Young God, Tompkins Square and Important Records, he has developed a unique playing style that takes Takoma school finger-picking into an entirely new place. Swirling overtones, cascading notes and a thousand points of light cascade from his guitar and create ever-shifting textures that bear the influence of contemporary classical composition, post-rock dynamics and invisible soundtracks as much as the American folk guitar tradition.

Despite his transcendent state music he is a grounded and earthly fellow who has been written about with reverence and has played churches, festivals, folk clubs and large concert halls on his many travels in the US, Europe and Japan. These have included extensive touring with the reformed Swans, as well as collaborative performances with Hauschka and Nancy Elizabeth. He performs and records as a member of Current 93and with Jozef Van Wissem as Brethren of The Free Spirit.

His latest record, Summoning Suns, is his tenth studio album and the first recording to feature his voice. Drawing inspiration from 60s and 70s singer-songwriters, baroque/orchestral pop and folk music, while still sounding contemporary, Summoning Suns is Blackshaw's foray into more traditional forms of songcraft. He sings in a gentle but assured style, occasionally reminiscent of Harry Nilsson, Jim O'Rourke and Elliott Smith, while his words combine personal experiences, neuroses and fantasy through many layers of abstraction, poeticism and dark humour. While the deft fingerpicking is still a prominent part of the sound, the songs are lushly and intricately arranged for drums, bass, piano, violin, flute and pedal steel guitar and features contributions from Simon Scott (Slowdive), Annie Nilsson and Japanese musicians Mori Wa Ikiteiru and Kaoru Noda (with whom he duets in Japanese on one song).

James Blackshaw plays at the Marine Theatre, Lyme Regis on Wednesday, July 27th at 7.30pm. Tickets are £10, available from www.marinetheatre.com or by calling 01297 442138.

Summer Show and Country Fayre

THIS year's Summer Show and Country Fayre, organised by the Uplyme & Lyme Regis Horticultural Society on Saturday July 16th, will have as its theme Strawberries – the quintessential Summer fruit from our gardens. As usual, the event will be on the King George V Memorial Field in Uplyme and in the Village Hall, from 1pm to 5pm, with something for everyone to enjoy. A proportion of the profits will be donated to the Village Hall and Playing Field to support these vital facilities for the village. Adequate parking will be close by, and entry to the event will cost £2 for adults, free for Under-16s. Free souvenir programmes will be available on the gate, and have been in Uplyme Stores, Raymonds Hill Post Office and Ginger Beer for the past few weeks – they contain lots of information about the events of the day.

The Show competitions will as usual be in the Marquee and Hall – exhibits will be received between 8-10am on Saturday, but you must submit your entries (free) by Wednesday 13th before 9pm – for details of the schedule, see our website www.ulrhs.wordpress.com. We hope for a good field of entries for the 150 different classes – flowers, fruit and vegetables, homemade wine and preserves, cookery, flower arranging, crafts and photography as well as Junior competitions. Come and see how well our local gardeners and cooks etc. can do – and submit your own to compete with them. The many trophies and prizes will be presented at 4:30pm by our Chair, Beryl Denham, on the field, or in the marquee if wet. This year's standout prizes for the Show are donated by River Cottage – a breadmaking course for the best French Strawberry Tart and a half day at Park Farm for the winning Junior " See what I've Grown" exhibit – and there are also prizes donated by several local businesses. There will as usual be Cream Teas in the Hall, the Cricket Club will be running their bar and there will be ice creams and a cider stall on the field.

The Show Field will see performances through the afternoon by Brass Tacks (a brass band from Weymouth), Uplyme Morris Men, and Punch and Judy shows from Uplyme's own Puppetree. Later on, Julie Corbin's dogs will be giving a demonstration of their Agility, and there will be free Steam Train rides throughout from the Weymouth Model Engineers. Other organisations showing off their animals will include Bearhouse Alpacas and Munchkins Miniature Shetland Ponies, together with stalls run by a number of wildlife and country skills enthusiasts such as East Devon Beekeepers, Butterfly Conservation, Axe Vale & District Conservation Society, the Royal Society for the Protection of Birds, Alan Brown Hurdle Makers, and Rousdon Spinners.

The Family Fun Dog Show, organised by Julie Corbin of k94u returns with plenty of fun classes in which to enter your pet – entry for these is on the day, from 1pm, with the competition beginning at 1:45pm. There will also be the chance for your dog to have a go at the Dog Scurry at any time, round and over straw bales (if the weather is fine and dry) to find out who is fastest. Bring your family pet to see how many rosettes they can go home with!

As usual, the field will boast a large number of stalls offering all kinds of goods for sale and games to play. There will be a Coconut Shy, Bat the Rat etc. as well as the ever popular Raffle, Food Tombola and Water and Wine stalls. A number of local attractions have donated some impressive raffle prizes, most notably the Alexandra Hotel, Seaton Tramway, Pecorama and Seaton Jurassic. Donations to the Food Tombola have come from traders such as Colyton Butchers, MacSorsons Fishmongers, Ganesha, Moores Biscuits, Wheatfields Bakery and Thursday Cottage, among others.

The Committee of the Society has organised this year's Show collectively and we hope to provide just as good an afternoon out as in recent years – all we need now is good weather and big crowds to make it all a success! There are too many members of the Society involved to thank them all by name – but as you go round the Show, please show your appreciation of their efforts in helping it all to happen, and do enjoy the afternoon!

Hard-rocking tribute to legendary Motörhead

MOTORKILL – the UK's top Motörhead tribute – bring their awesome headbangin' live show to Winstons in Seaton on Saturday, July 23rd for one night only.

Having plied their trade for several years, playing all the big festivals in the UK and Europe, they come to the South West paying homage to the late, great Lemmy.

As the band themselves say: "With the sad loss of Lemmy earlier this year, we aim to remind people just what a giant of a man he was by playing a greatest hits set with a smattering of lesser played tracks."

Winston's manager, Chris Oakes, said: "This is a big event for us and for any true rock fan the chance to hear 'Ace Of Spades' and other classic tracks recreated live is one gig not to be missed."

Tickets are £10 in advance or £13 on the night, and are available from Winstons in Seaton, Beer Village Stores and Ax Music in Axminster. The show takes place on Saturday, July 23rd at 9pm.

Steve Knightley to play live in Thorncombe

STEVE KNIGHTLEY is the song writing force behind the phenomenally successful acoustic duo Show of Hands. Ahead of their headline appearance at Sidmouth Folk Week, Steve will perform a solo gig in Thorncombe, on Saturday, July 30th.

As well as a fine singer and musician, Steve's songs 'Country Life' and 'Roots' were both nominated for the coveted Best Original Song category in the BBC Radio2 Folk Awards, which Steve won with his widely acclaimed song aimed at bankers and MPs – 'Arrogance, Ignorance and Greed'.

Show of Hands are a familiar and hugely popular West Country band, and Steve himself is known to many in West Dorset having lived here and taught at Beaminster School. Their annual one-day festival at Abbotsbury Gardens is always sold out, and they have just announced that tickets for their gig at the royal Albert Hall next April are now on sale.

Sponsored by local skin care company Lovegrove Essentials Ltd, Steve Knightley In Concert starts at 8pm on Saturday, July 30th. Gates open at 7 pm and guests can bring a picnic. Tea and cakes will be served during the interval. It is a strictly ticket only event and numbers are limited to 50. Tickets can be bought online at www.lovegroveessentials.com or call 07541 587 668 for more information.

Nissan Note Black Edition: Stand out with style

STRIKING contemporary design, a high standard specification and a touch of premium quality seamlessly blend together on a new special version of the Nissan Note – the Black Edition.

The most eye-catching enhancement is to the exterior of the popular compact (B-segment) hatchback. The addition of a Dynamic Styling Pack means sporty body-coloured bumpers front and rear, side skirts and black bezel headlights. A performance-oriented black spoiler at the top of the hatchback further enhances the look.

Other upgrades include 16-inch alloy wheels, smart new door handles and mirror covers, plus gloss inserts around the daytime running lights. There is a new high quality finish to the B and C-pillars, which frame the rear passenger door windows. As the car's name implies, all these enhancements are finished in premium black.

The interior of the Note Black Edition has also been given a significant makeover. The centre console is finished in gloss black, with a black gear shift knob close by. Above, the black headliner adds a stand-out and sophisticated look.

Electric rear windows are included and the NissanConnect touch-screen infotainment system is also available as an option.

The Nissan Note Black Edition comes in two striking body colours – a pearlescent Storm White or a metallic Pearl Black – and is based on the popular Acenta mid-grade trim level. That means air conditioning, a multi-function leather steering wheel and Bluetooth connectivity with audio streaming included on every car.

They are in addition to the Note's most appealing features – its spacious interior and modern, efficient engines. Black Edition models are available with a choice of two powerplants from the Note range – the 1.5-litre dCi 90 manual and 1.2-litre 80 manual.

Lanehouse Vauxhall takes trip down memory lane as Vauxhall celebrates milestone anniversaries

VAUXHALL is celebrating milestone anniversaries for two of its most popular vehicles. It is 50 years since the first Viva HB rolled off the production line and 30 years since the last Bedford commercial vehicle was manufactured.

With both models having been regular fixtures on the roads around Dorset, local retailer, Lanehouse Vauxhall, with sites in Bridport and Weymouth, is taking a trip down memory lane to remind residents of these iconic vehicles from times gone by.

VIVA FOREVER

As England celebrated its World Cup heroes, Vauxhall's very first Viva HB went into production, replacing the first incarnation of the model with a fresh approach to styling. It proved highly successful, with over half a million units sold in just four years.

Fast forward more than five decades since the original Viva launched and the new VIVA is celebrating its first birthday. Having been truly designed for modern, everyday life, it offers drivers practicality and exceptional attention to detail.

Today's VIVA customer has the choice of two trims when they visit the showroom at Lanehouse Vauxhall; an SE from £8,595 and an SL from £9,495. The entry-level SE offers as standard cruise control with speed limiter, electric front windows, hill-start assist, heated door mirrors, central locking and six airbags, in addition to colour-coded bumpers and door mirrors, plus cornering fog lights.

BEDFORD TAKES ON THE WORLD

Taking its name from the county of Bedfordshire, home to Vauxhall's Luton plant, Bedford Vehicles became a world-renowned truck brand from the 1930s until it was retired in 1986. With significant export sales of light, medium, and heavy trucks throughout the world, it established Vauxhall's place at the forefront of commercial vehicle design.

Vauxhall's range of commercial vehicles has continued to evolve since the success of the Bedford brand, with the British built award-winning Vivaro now taking the Vauxhall crown.

Dominic Avery, Company Director at Lanehouse Vauxhall, comments: "Every June we mark our Vauxhall Heritage Day and, with 113 years of production under our belt, there's plenty to celebrate.

"We love to look back and celebrate the vehicles that have kept Vauxhall at the forefront of automotive design and evolution. Both the Viva HB and Bedford models responded to a real need in the market place, as well as giving drivers cutting edge design, attractive styling and genuine innovation – something we are proud to deliver to our customers today."

For details about latest vehicles in the Vauxhall range, please contact your nearest Lanehouse Vauxhall or go online to www.lanehousevauxhall.co.uk.

Information about Vauxhall's 113-year history can be found on www.vauxhallandi.co.uk

Uplyme & Lyme Regis Cricket Club WITH HOWARD LARCOMBE

@howardlarcombe

Ax blunted in impressive derby win

2nd XI top order shot out without scoring

Devon League Division C

AXMINSTER 184 FOR 8 LOST TO UPLYME 176 FOR 4 [REVISED TARGET] BY 6 WICKETS

AFTER winning the toss and opting to bowl first on a damp wicket, Uplyme & Lyme Regis CC 1st XI skipper Steve Batey must have been concerned about the poor start that his bowlers made allowing the openers Alan Ostler and Michael Wakely to get off to a brisk start reaching 41 in comfortable style.

In the first league meeting between the two old rivals for 22 years, it was the introduction of in-form James Whetlor, playing against his previous team, that led to the breakthrough when he had Ostler caught and bowled.

Whetlor, fresh from a five wicket haul last week, then struck again to dismiss Matt Pile bowled through the gate.

But the dangerous Wakely was still there and looking to build on a recent run of match winning scores for his side.

With Simon Steer he built a partnership and the pair had brought up the 100 when Whetlor struck again and had Wakely well caught by Mark Brimicombe just two short of his half century.

The Axminster middle order of Steer (22), Sam Farrow (21), and captain Paul Miller (35) worked hard to re-establish the innings.

All got starts but failed to capitalise. The first two fell to the off spin of Michael van den Berg and Steve Batey took a fine return catch to get rid of his opposite number.

Nic Dinnison then returned to take the wickets of Ben Fuzzard and Nick Taylor and tie the innings up for a par score of 184 for 8.

The Uplyme innings started badly with Rob Thom falling for 2 with just eight on the board but Brimicombe joined Laurie Thomas and together they took the score to 96 before Brimcombe fell.

Mark Batey went cheaply, but from there on Van den Berg (31*) and Tyler Wellman (35*) played confidently.

Three overs were lost to rain and the target was reduced to 176 but with a flurry of five fours and one six from Wellman, Uplyme crossed the line with overs to spare.

Axminster claim the spoils in basement battle

AXMINSTER 2ND XI 200 FOR 5 BEAT UPLYME 103 ALL OUT BY 97 RUNS

AXMINSTER outplayed local rivals Uplyme with both bat and ball in Saturday's local derby.

Asked to bat first on a wet wicket Peter Kiy (44) and Ben Fuzzard (18) started slowly against some accurate bowling from Toby Newson (1-28), Gabriel Maltby (2-33) and Emily Broad (1-40).

At drinks Axminster were 90 for 2 but they increased the rate with a fine knock from Sam Dibling (46, 3x6).

The acceleration was maintained by Harry Felgate who finished with 23* including a fine pull for six into the car park.

Uplyme worked hard in the field but gifted the opposition 23 extras in wides and allowed them to gain maximum batting points reaching 200 for 5 at the close.

In reply, Uplyme batting got off to a disastrous start and found themselves four down without any runs on the board against the pace of Harry Felgate and the movement of Dominic Goodhew.

But a resolute 62* from Dave Norman saw the hosts reach 103. The game ended with 13 overs to spare and Axminster worthy winners.

Bridport Bowls

Weather the winner

WEATHER was the winner in a week fortunately where the fixture list was less crowded than usual. Both ladies teams made starts in the DWL, but both had to be abandoned as the rain arrived and progressively got worse.

The Division One game at Priory Lane against BLANDFORD A started in drizzle but had to be abandoned at the ninth end as the weather deteriorated and the points were shared 5-5. They managed 15 ends which constituted a result in the basement battle in Division Two before they were driven off the green by the terrible weather.

Unfortunately for Bridport B it meant they lost the game to DORCHESTER B 38-58 overall and gained just two points through Janet Bird, Pam Gray, Pauline Newitt & Jan Tattersahall who won 20-11.

Lyn Craddock, Sue Fox, Jill Willcox & Marion Tocher put up a good fight but eventually went down 11-17, whilst Mary Corfield, Chris Robbins, Margaret Strange, & Dinah Wilson struggled in the bad conditions and lost 7-30.

The Men lost in the County Cup beaten at home by WIMBORNE in the quarter-final.

There were two friendlies played. In the mixed game away to MADEIRA, Bridport won by 23 shots winning four of the five rinks, with S Smith, M Craddock, J Carter & F. Pomeroy the best at 31-12.

The men also played a triples match at home to CHARDSTOCK but lost 56-67, T Hutchinson, D Crocker & J Ireland the only winning rink (20-14) out of four.

All the other games were lost to the weather including a six rink men's friendly with LYME REGIS at Priory Lane on Wednesday.

Table Tennis

Shipton make breakthrough

ADULT teams at Shipton Gorge have been taking part in the Weymouth & District Table Tennis League for a number of years with considerable success, and are former winners of the top division.

The past campaign saw the West Dorset village enter a youth side for the first time and they have made a very good impression on their debut.

Finishing fourth in Division Three, they won ten of their 18 matches with 359 points and were only seven points away from third place.

It was a good season for the club as one of the adult teams, Shipton Gorge C, won Division 3.

Joachim Wood finished with the youth team's best playing average winning 63 per cent of his games. The other players Patrick Harper (54), James Noonan (45) and Jonah Corren (43) all chipped in with good points in an excellent all round team effort.

Team organiser, Dan Corren, congratulated the boys on their debut season.

"A huge well done for all of the great matches played, including those matches they didn't win, as the standard of play was excellent throughout and there were several very closely fought matches that could easily have gone either way."

Last season saw a record eight youth teams enter the Weymouth & District Table Tennis League and the league development secretary, Andy Millar, is keen to add to that number when the League restarts in September.

Wey Valley School have already confirmed they will be entering a team for the first time, joining Shipton Gorge, Budmouth, All Saints and Steps.

Any youth or adult players who are interested in playing next season, please contact a.millar212@gmail.com.

Swimming

Hoskins appointed County President

Bridport Barracudas Swimming Club were triumphant after competing in the third round of the Jurassic League recently.

They won by four points with the deciding margin only achieved in the final events with a battling WAREHAM team who pushed the Barracudas all the way.

A total of 12 personal best times were achieved by Bridport swimmers with two club records achieved by Eve Hewitt in the 50m Backstroke and Henry Wyrill in the 50M Breaststroke.

The Final round of the Jurassic League is scheduled to take place at Bridport Leisure Centre on Saturday with cup presentations for winners and runners up.

The evening is capped with a BBQ for all six competing clubs and supporters.

Congratulations also go to Mark Hoskins who has taken over the role of President for the Dorset Amateur Swimming Association for the next 12 months.

◆ HONOUR: Mark Hoskins

In addition, Mary Rousell was recently honoured at the Dorset ASA AGM when she was given a Long Service Award for the many years she has spent on Poolside.

Mary has held, and still holds, many roles within the Club from teaching, coaching and officiating at galas over the years, to being a mentor to the Young Volunteers and adults to become Timekeepers and Judges

Mary joined Bridport Barracudas in September 1996 after moving down from High Wickham. She was Barracudas' very first full time Head Coach, taking up this voluntary role in 1997 and held the position for five years.

Part of her commitment to swimming has meant that she has spent her 50th, 60th , 70th and most recently her 78th birthday at poolside!

Indoor Bowls

Fencers finish with flourish

THE Fencers of Ann Harris, Roy Gill & David Jenkins finished 1, 2, 1, 2 to beat the Rowers 13-11 to retain their four point lead at the top of the Bridport & West Dorset Club Evening League.

Pete Cowburn, Eric White and Martin Wilton's Pugilists remain second after they beat the Archers 15-8.

However Di Neal, Brian Baker and Julie Bright's Gymnasts were the headliners this week though with a 25-3 demolition job over the Cyclists; star performer was Di Neal who was on magnificent form at lead.

The Wrestlers still remain pointless after they were beaten 24-7 by Mel Hargett, David Drake and Paul Hallett's Decathletes

Maureen Hicks, Geoff Hansen and Mike Fletcher's Hurdlers finished 1,1 for a 14-11 victory over the Swimmers, whilst the Equestrians of John Davies, Reg Dodd and Keith Hicks sunk the Divers 16-9.

The Morning League still has joint leaders after the Gunners comprising Bernard Waterman, Nova Varney and the Wilton's beat the Hammers 12-10.

Meanwhile, with Sylvia and Mike Fletcher and Hargett's Canaries picking off the Cherries 13-10, and and Pat Anderson, Hugh Rees and Margaret Pestelle's Toffees winners 12-7 over the Magpies, it remains a three way tie at the top.

Mike Loud, Anne Parkins and Hallett's Spurs squeezed past the Pensioners 17-16 with a three count on the final end, whilst the Red Devils looked beaten at 4-10 down to Foxes, but Martin Waters, Dodd and Tony Harrison finished 2, 3, 3, 2, 2 to win 14-10. Joan Higman, Ruby and Bernard Winton's Potters also had a great finish, ending 1, 2, 2, 1 to beat the Glovers 10-5.

PREMIER LEAGUE

MARTINSTOWN (20) 286-7 BEAT DORCHESTER (6) 189 ALL OUT BY 97 RUNS

DORCHESTER'S title hopes were dented by Martinstown at Lower Ashton Farm.

Having lost ground last week when their game at Swanage was the only Premier game cancelled because of the weather, they lost further ground as Martinstown halted a run of five defeats.

The hosts decided to bat having won the toss on a superb wicket, but lost Lee House for a single, dragging on to Josh Richardson who had to retire after four overs with a hamstring injury.

However, captain Ed Nichols and Ben Lawes after a cautious period, started to take control and were soon reaping rewards.

They added 213 for the second wicket, believed to be a club record stand, before Nichols fell one short of his century (14x4).

Lawes continued his belligerent mood as the Martinstown's innings began to unravel.

Mitchem claimed 2-45, but Lawes finished his chanceless knock on 147 not out (22x4, 1x6) as the hosts set Dorchester a big total to chase.

The county town's reply took a similar shape with Dan Belt and Peter Moxom (57) adding 135 for the first wicket before the latter was caught behind following one down the leg side just before drinks.

Like Martinstown's innings the dismissal was the beginning of the end as that man Lawes struck dismissing Will McKay, Mitchem and then Belt for a superb 91 (9x4, 2x6).

Chris Read (4-35) then struck and between them they cleaned up the tail with Lawes finishing with 5-29 from his nine overs.

Nichols was delighted with his side's performance, and particularly Lawes contribution. "Ben played remarkably well, and to play alongside him in the middle was special.

"To have a player who has played at a high level of cricket gave the whole side a lift."

On being dismissed one short of a personal century he added: "I hadn't realised I was so close, but I'm pleased, although I think the lads were more disappointed than me."

Commenting on Dorchester's reply he said: "A score of 290 is a lot to get and I was always positive it would be too many.

"However, with Dan Belt and Pete Moxom going well, we had a bit of luck go our way when Pete followed one down the leg side just before drinks.

"After the resumption I think the pressure really got to them, which is the benefit of having so many runs on the board to start."

The skipper was also impressed with Chris Read's performance particularly as he injured his finger fielding off his own bowling that almost removed his nail.

"I don't know how he managed to bowl with it all wrapped up, but he has amazing resilliance.

Dorchester captain Mitchem said. "Unfortunately we bowled and fielded poorly; with Josh Richardson getting injured and us having only ten players for the last 16 overs.

Dan and Pete gave us a great start. If they had batted another ten overs it might have been different.

"I'm just frustrated at how we bowled and giving the opposition 60-65 runs makes a massive difference to chasing 220/230 instead of 280/290.

Lawes a teacher at Milton Abbey, was playing only his second game of the season, and should be available on a more regular basis in the future which will be a bonus for Martinstown.

County Division One

WEYMOUTH (3) 143 ALL OUT LOST TO BERE REGIS (20) 145-2 BY 8 WICKETS

SIMON Browne was still upbeat despite their sixth successive defeat at the hands of Bere Regis.

Although admitting that once again they had not scored enough runs, he felt for the second successive match they had been the victim of some excellent bowling from the opposition's opening bowler.

"I think we have been a little bit unfortunate in that, as with Christchurch who had a bowler who removed three of our top batsmen for not many, the opening bowler for Bere Regis Crispin Brown did likewise and accounted for our top three batsmen quite quickly.

"Credit to Brown, he bowled really well and as well as Neil Walton and Dean Janaway (15), he got me with a absolute jaffa that would have dismissed a far better batsman than me.

"I'm not getting down about it, but we didn't have anybody that took three for not many, and that made the difference. But we also didn't score enough runs, so it was always going to be difficult."

The one success with the bat was Paul Payne who scored a defiant 67 to allow Weymouth to reach 143 all out, although it never appeared enough.

And so it proved although Brown who showed the way taking 1-20 from his nine overs, was pleased by overall by the bowling although it was a small total to defend.

Browne who said he was hopeful of having Dan Hutchings back for next week's trip to Broadstone said: "The annoying things are when we lost games we have not played as well as we can or make mistakes or drop catches, which we didn't do in this one.

County Division 2

MARNHULL (8) 210-6 LOST TO CATTISTOCK (18) 236-7 BY 26 RUNS

CATTISTOCK continue to head the division after this close win over Marnhull.

Missing Martin Langford, Billy Walbridge stepped up to open with Jon Legg and they put on 102 for the first wicket before the emergency opener was dismissed for 49.

This triggered a collapse however and with Steve Baker, Steve Tucker, Liam Toohill and Ben Golledge all back in the hutch courtesy of Ed Ralph (5-27) they stood at 116-5.

However a sixth wicket partnership between Legg and Ollie Lee (18) of 68 put Cattistock back on track.

Legg went on to complete his century before he was dismissed for 106 (18x4), leaving Bradley Damen to give the tail a boost with 40 not out from just 14 balls.

Marnhull put on 44 before Legg broke the partnership. Although Ashley Young (54) proved resilient, Legg (3-23) and Toohill (2-25) reduced the hosts to 160-5 before Dan Harkin (35no) held them at bay in the hope of earning batting points rather than winning the game.

PORTLAND RED TRIANGLE (9) 277 LOST TO WITCHAMPTON (20) 284-3 BY 7 RUNS

TRIANGLE'S captain Matt Randall was disappointed with his side's bowling and fielding performance after they failed to match Witchampton's score by just seven runs.

He was also critical of the visitors negative tactics to ensure they remained in second spot with all the fielders patrolling the boundary, and the umpire's leniency on legside wides allowed Witchampton's to take advantage without penalty.

Poor bowling from their opening bowlers coupled by slack fielding saw Witchampton post 80 runs off the first 10 overs.

The change bowlers Callum Laws who took a wicket, Joe Adkins (0-15 off five) and Elliott Sawyer who picked up the other two, reined the visitors in before they were ruthless on the returning opening bowlers.

Adkins led the run chase with 80 and was well supported by Sawyer (46), Laws (46), Tim Forshaw (57) and Chris Theakstone (26no), but their efforts just failed.

Randall added: "We let them score too many runs early on, dropped five catches, so I thought we did well to drag them back to 280, but we gave them the game,we were that poor.

"We were a little bit unlucky not to have chased them down, but their negative tactics made it almost impossible, and to get 277 was a credit to our batsmen.

County Division 3

BEAMINSTER (20) 161-5 BEAT WIMBORNE & COLEHILL 3RD (5) 157 BY 5 WICKETS

BEAMINSTER secured an impressive fourth consecutive home victory after comfortably beating Wimborne and Colehill 3rds by five wickets.

After being set a target of 158, openers Dan Spiller (41) and Hugh Rathbone (61) put on an excellent 92 runs for the first wicket. The big hitting pair punished any loose deliveries as they went on the attack in pursuit of the modest target.

Despite a mid innings wobble, brother's Justin (17 not out) hit the winning runs.

Earlier all of the Beaminster attack bowled economically and pegged the visitors back by taking wickets at regular intervals. Ross Baker bowled a tidy spell of 2-27 from nine overs, whilst Nick Hollely weighed in with 2-13.

Simon Jones was the most successful bowler claiming 3-22 from his nine overs, but it was youngster Fergus Rees (2-26) who was most influential taking two crucial wickets in consecutive balls.

DORCHESTER 2ND (18) 82-5 (REVISED TARGET 82) BEAT BOURNEMOUTH 3RD (2) 97

DORCHESTER consolidated their midtable position in this rain affected victory.

Bournemouth elected to bat but found opening bowler Pete Horne in devastating form. His pace and accuracy tore through the visiting top order as he bagged 5-13 from his nine overs including a hat trick.

With all the other bowlers offering accurate support, the best being Mike Peak with 2-15 off nine, Bournemouth found themselves 40-9 after 21 overs.

However, Ollie Breckon (25*) and Gareth Davies (19) batted sensibly putting on 57 for the final wicket to eventually reach 97 all out in the 40th over.

Dorchester were set a revised target of 82 in 33 overs following rain delays, and were soon reduced to 14-2 but Malcolm Stroudley (15) and Matt Porter (34) put on 43 for the third wicket, before Ben Macklin (10no) and Horne saw Dorchester home with just over four overs to spare.

COUNTY DIVISION 4

ABBOTSBURY (20) 213-7 BEAT BLANDFORD 2ND (5) 124 BY 89 RUNS

ABBOTSBURY got themselves back in the promotion mix with an easy win over Blandford 2nds.

Simon Pengelly won the toss and soon set about the visitors' bowling. He lost partners Aaron Oliver (17) Steve Budd (0) and run out victim Nick Kneebone (1) with 62 on the board, but he and Chris Backhouse added 94 before the captain was dismissed leg before for a fine 90.

Backhouse (57) completed his half century before the innings closed on 213-7.

Blandford had no one who could master Abbotsbury's economic bowlers; their top score being only 20; and it was Chas Duerdoth 4-19 from his seven overs, and Pete Lawrence (2-3) at the end that saw them dismissed for just 124 all out.

CHARLTON DOWN (19) 166-8 BEAT STURMINSTER & HINTON (4) 70 ALL OUT (REVISED TARGET 154)

CHARLTON Down's unbeaten run continued into the second half of the season with a convincing 83 run victory over a strong Sturminster & Hinton team unbeaten themselves in their last four matches.

Asked to bat on a damp wicket, rain interruptions made batting difficult and Charlton Down found themselves in the unusual position this season, in a spot of bother at 50-3, having lost Jack Eveleigh (17), Jae Miller (13) and Nick Voss (11) after 21 overs.

With two new batsmen at the crease and only 19 overs remaining, runs were hard to come by and Charlton Down had to dig deep, but a match winning partnership of 79 between Sam Roles and Matt Stevens turned the match their way.

Stevens continuing his fine form with the bat took the role of rotating the strike for Roles to clinically strike the boundary, whilst their running between the wickets was fantastic as a pair.

Roles was eventually bowled by Chris Read for 52 (5x4, 1x6), and with overs running out and the batsmen pushing hard for more runs Sturminster's Andy Rose (3-23) returned to snap up three wickets.

However, Stevens found the boundary regularly and finished on 34 not out taking the Charlton Down score to 166-8. Rain reduced the overs to 35 and Sturminster's target to 154.

Rose and Andy Beale found scoring runs so difficult against Matt and Dan Stevens that it was the last ball of the fifth over before they opened their account.

However it was a devastating spell of bowling from James Pretty (5-17) who benefited from the early tight bowling. He claimed two wickets in his first over and another two wickets just three overs later, both providing hat-trick opportunities.

Sturminster slumped to 24-4 and then the introduction of spin saw Roles (3-31) left the visitors on 48-7.

Javed Gill then bowled Nick Edmonds before a fine piece of fielding by Nick Voss brought the end of the Sturminster innings and defeat by 83 runs.

Captain Pete Tucker said: "The younger element of the team learnt a lot about batting first on a damp grass wicket and battling for each run."

PUDDLETOWN (16) 302-5 BEAT SWANAGE 2ND (6) 174-3 BY 128 RUNS

WITH the top five batsmen all scoring well led by Tim Orford (70), Puddletown racked up over 300 runs.

Swanage failed to match the run rate and settled for picking up as many batting points as they could.

County Division Six

STALBRIDGE 3RD (10) 122-2 BEAT PORTLAND RT 2NDS (0) 120-8 BY 8 WICKETS

STALBRIDGE cantered to an easy eight wicket win, reaching their target in half their allocation.

Rich Samuels (41) top scored for Triangle with Ryan Price (22) and George Munro (17) the only scorers of note.

Munro (1-15) made an early strike for Portland bowling Will Coleman but an unbeaten 67 from Marcus Robertson saw Stalbridge home comfortably.

County cup nailbiter

WHAT an exciting week at Lyme Regis Bowls Club writes Paul Moffitt.

In the Dorset Championship the men scraped home with a draw against Wimborne, but managed to bag six points after winnin, on two rinks.

The County Cup tie against Broadstone Wessex (two rinks home, two away) turned out to be a real nailbiter. With the home teams having finished, Broadstone needed two shots on the last end to tie the reverse game.

With the tie-break decider already having played at home, and lost by Lyme, two shots would have given Broadstone the match. Their skip managed to draw one but just missed out on a second leaving Lyme the victors by a single shot.

The Ladies were not so fortunate when playing Broadstone at home, losing on all rinks in a rain reduced game of 15 ends.

They did however enjoy success in the 'Top Club' competition beating Sherborne who, after a rain stoppage, conceded the game with six ends still to play.

In the friendlies, it was played four, won two, lost two.

Close finishes

SUNDAY saw a very light SE breeze which dropped off during the morning giving Race Officer Dave Guthrie a difficult job to get two races finished, even with shortened courses. He managed to start the third but had to abandon as the wind died.

Close racing saw Jon Turner win from Tim Parsons by only two seconds in an hour long race eight.

Similarly two seconds separated second and third places in race nine, while Jon and Tim held first and second, this time with two minutes between them over 30 minutes of racing. Jerry Rook made third in both races.

The first Oppie races took place with four young competitors.

They were unable to make it to the start line in time in the light winds, so safety boat helm Alan Cottis set them an inshore course.

Ed Stubbs won overall with a first and a second place, with Archie Sowerbutts taking the honours in the second race.

'There was never a dull moment, we left Lymington quay at 7am and got back in at 10pm," said Dan.

Fricker delighted with pre-season training

NEW Bridport manager Adam Fricker was delighted with how many players turned up for pre-season training last week and the quality and enthusiasm they showed writes Stuart Broom.

Over 50 attended the first session last Tuesday comprising of current Bridport senior players as well as many of the Under 18 and Under 16 squads, together with a number who played under Fricker at Chard Town last season.

They were put through their paces by former Bridgwater manager Paul West, a qualified FA coach, allowing Fricker and his assistant Jason Behan to run their eye over the players and talk with them individually during recovery sessions.

He told View Sport: "Paul stood down from managing Bridgwater at the end of the season because of work commitments. We need to blow the cobwebs out the first week and do that bit of fitness early on because the games will be coming thick and fast soon.

"James Smith who was at Sherborne last year and is a really experienced goalkeeper has come in to work with the goalies, and as cover for us should we need him.

"It was encouraging to see so many of the younger players, particularly as the club are looking to make closer links with the youth team."

Besides current club players from the club were eight from Chard; another two attended Thursday's session; although Mark Salter, Dan Peach and Alan Hill were all missing for specific reasons but were due to train this week, whilst Ryan Hayter, continues to train in Southampton where he lives, as he did under Trevor Senior.

"It's an exception, but I know Ryan is dedicated and will continue to put everything into the club, and will be playing on Saturday.

"I've been impressed with the attitude of Luke King, Matty Condliffe Dan Peart and Tom Blair and of course I know what the Chard lads can do."

He added: "We've got plenty of lads and a decent squad here, and there may be a couple of additions, but first we want to get them out on the pitch on Saturday and take it from there.

"At the moment we didn't want to actively go after any players other than those we already knew because we want to see what we have first, so we will probably look at the first couple of pre-season games and see how the squad is taking shape, and then go if we need to.

◆ PUTTING IN THE LAPS: There was a good turnout for Bridport FC's first pre-season session

Bridport's first pre-season game is this Saturday (9th) when they entertain Wincanton Town ko 1pm.

One player missing is Chris Clarke who has signed for Portland United.

The Bees boss said: "If he doesn't want to play for Bridport then fine; we only want players that are going to work hard for the badge so you look for other options.

"However the way he went about it was a little bit disappointing from my point of view - I had three or four conversations with him and agreed pretty much everything and he indicated he was planning on coming down He finally texted me on Saturday and told me he made the decision because he was working in Portland now and the financial package was better.

"I wish him all the best, but just wish he had been a bit more upfront and honest with me."
